Overview

Viator is the world's largest online marketplace for travel experiences, and they offer over 300,000 bookable tours, attractions, and activities worldwide. They have a variety of different immersive experiences, and quality support to guide advisors and their clients through a seamless travel experience. The only experiences that are excluded are weapons-based experiences, unsanctioned excursions, captive wildlife tours, or *physical products unrelated to services positioned by Viator.

Viator does NOT sell direct goods like foods, books, or computer accessories. However, travelers may get goods from tour/experience providers booked via Viator. Example: A chef may give travelers a custom cutting board after a cooking workshop. However, that gift would not be sold or provided by Viator.*
